no idea.

It is the belief of the Governor, following a conference which he had with Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, on Saturday afternoon, that Mr. Murphy stands ready at all times to favor another conference of members of the Legislature on the Senatorship. Gov. Dix used the term "conference" advisedly.

Senator Franklin D. Roosevelt had a talk with Gov. Dix at the Executive Mansion late this afternoon. Senator Roosevelt to-night said that as yet the situation had not changed so far as he was concerned as the result of his talk with Gov. Dix.

Shepard Advocate Asks Caucus Candidate to Stick and Not Withdraw.
Among the original Shepard men who have written to William F. Sheehan to urge him not to withdraw from the United States Senatorship contest is William Temple Emmet. Mr. Emmet was a member of the Shepard committee of New York county and worked for Mr. Shepard until he was eliminated. Like most of his associates, Mr. Emmet says, he did not want his name used in connection with a movement aimed primarily on $5,000 bail by Commissioner Shields. Lippman's release yesterday morning was imperative because he had to appear as a foreman of a jury before Justice Bischoff in the State Supreme Court.

An indictment was found against Lippman on last Friday by the Federal Grand Jury. The merchant was adjudicated bankrupt in the United States District Court in the spring of 1910, and it is charged that in subsequent hearings Lippman swore falsely as to his assets, and that he concealed two life insurance policies of a money value as well as an interest in Lippman & Co., which at the time amounted to at least a third and later to a half. nection with a movement aimed primarily to a half. at Mr. Sheehan's defeat rather than for Shepard's election. Continuing his letter to Mr. Sheehan, written on March 19, Mr. Emmet says:

"For as long as Mr. Shepard remained in the field I felt, as I have said, sympathetic and friendly to his cause, but since his withdrawal I want you to know that all that sympathy and friendship has been transferred to the candidate who was my second choice from the beginning—namely, yourself.

"It will be an infernal outrage and disgrace if as a result of the original Shepard capdidacy, which has now ceased, a man like you, possessing so many admirable qualifications for successful service as Senator, should be compelled to withdraw in favor of some 'compromise' candidate whose ability and experience would not compare with yours. I hope that as matters stand now you will not withdraw."

Speaker Frisbie of the Assembly called on Mayor Gaynor yesterday and the two talked together for about half an hour When they separated Mr. Frisbie would answer no inquiries concerning the contaking his early losses he tried to recoup and before he realized the position his ference and all that the Mayor would say was that he had talked with Mr. Frisbie on the Senatorship situation and had also asked his opinion on some of the Clauses of the new city charter that the Mayor is preparing to submit to the Legislature.

AN ANTI-TICKET SPECULATORS BILL IN THE SENATE.

Also a Variously Named Direct Nominations Bill Which Abolishes All Conventions Except the State One Assembly Passes a Number of Bills

ALBANY, March 20. Senator J. G. Saxe of Manhattan, who represents a district which has thirty-four theatres in it, introduced a bill in the Senate to-night to put the theatre ticket speculators out of business. The bill provides that all ticket scalpers operating on public thoroughfares shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine or imprisonment. Senator Saxe said to-night that he had received innumerable complaints against the ticket scalpers. They bother everybody, he says, and it is time the Legislature took some drastic action to abolish the practice.

Senator Loomis, Democratic insurgent of Erie, introduced a direct nominations bill similar to the Democratic State League bill of last year, except that it includes the city of New York. This is the bill drafted by D-Cady Herrick, known as the Grady-Frisbie bill, and all conventions except the State convention are abolished. The delegates to the State convention and all party committeemen are to be chosen at the primaries. There is no provision for an official ballot.
